

INDIANA STATE SENTINEL.

DEFERRED MATTER.

HANOVER COLLEGE.—The Catalogue and Circular of the Hanover, (Ind.) College has been sent to us. The location of this institution is within one mile of the Ohio river, between Cincinnati and Louisville, about six miles from Madison, Ind. It is in a small and retired village, where no turbulent spirits are allowed to be sold, and the people generally are religious. These facts, connected with the watchful care of the faculty, afford security for the safety and welfare of the students.

We have not space for an extended notice of this institution; and, indeed, in a State blessed with so many, and all of them, institutions of a high character, it is difficult to judge between their merit. To be sure, we believe this institution is not generally known as the State University at Bloomington, or the College at Crawfordsville, and some others; yet we cannot pretend, with our knowledge, to say it is not as well conducted and deserving of equal praise. We wish them all the success they deserve.

ALL THE DELEGATES!—It is not surprising that corrupt and foul-mouthed members of Congress should have denounced their President as an "Arnold," and a "miserable wretch" or that they should have sworn to "dead him or die." But it is somewhat surprising that Editors can be found so lost to self-respect and common courtesy, as to use language like the following towards an officer they had labored hard and had harder to elect. This is but a single specimen among many of like character. It is from the N. Y. American, a leading Whig paper, and one usually dourous in its language. It says of the Whig President of the United States, that he is—

"False to his country, false to his friends, false to himself, he stands before the nation branded as wanting alike the disinterestedness of a patriot, the fidelity of an associate, and the honor of a gentle man."

SELF MARRYING.—A curious instance of profound hypocrisy on one side and simplicity on the other was exhibited recently before the Police Court of Boston. A German named Holzheim, officiating as pastor of a German congregation, was brought up on a charge of immorality. The witness against him was a German girl named Rigina Holzheim, who deposed in substance that Holzheim met her in the street—offered to find a place at which she could go into service—took her to his boarding house—made love to her—persuaded her that he was authorized to marry himself to her—took her into his room and made a prayer, which he represented as equivalent to the marriage ceremony, and then made her accompany him to Salina, where they passed the night in man and wife. Returning the next day, he locked her up in his room, and kept her from Friday to Sunday morning, when he took her to his church, and preached as usual. The poor girl was finally convinced that she was lawfully married to her betrayer. The scamp was committed to prison.

Writs of Quo Warranto have been issued against the Southwick and Kensington Banks, Philadelphias, to show cause why their charters should not be forfeited. They refused to comply with the requisition of the Governor, made under authority of law for the term of a sum proportionable to the amount of their capitals, according to the provisions of an act of Assembly, passed the last session of the Legislature. The writs are returnable on the 15th inst.

COMMERCIAL BANK OF NEW YORK.—The Bank Commissioners have closed this Bank. It has existed, for a long time, a heavy debt, and upon a recent examination it was ascertained that more than half its capital was gone. Its circulation amounted to about $120,000. The Comptroller has made arrangements for the redemption of the Notes of the Bank. It is now supposed that the Safety Fund will suffer from this failure. Depositors will lose back their money, but the stockholders must lose largely.

ANOTHER BANK RUINERY!—Two men named Gaspard and Morris have ruined the Bank of Oregon of $300,000, and cut for Texas or the Devil.

ST. LOUIS.—It seems that the whigs of St. Louis are determined to stop the publication of a democratic paper at that place. It is but little over a year since the publisher of the Argus was murdered in the street in broad day, and the murderer suffered to escape with a small fine. The paper was still continued by a successor, and he is threatened with death by a fellow named Taylor. He tried to pick a quarrel with the publisher in the streets, but being avoided, has sent him a challenge. He is treated with proper contempt.

The Whigs are getting quite philosophical under their defeat, says the Sao. Democrat. Their papers even have a democratic streak of fun following. For instance, the last Herald said:

"Long Tom occasionally gets off a good one. Taking up a whig newspaper (the Kosciusko Journal) the other day, he commenced reading an article running something thus: 'We stop the press to announce the gratifying intelligence that the President has signed the Bank Bill.' 'There,' said Tom, 'that is the first time I ever knew Tom to be obliged to stop the press to announce a lie. He generally has one ready before the paper is made up! Tom is an awful loon.'

JESSE D. BRIGHT.—Late U. S. Marshal, D. Ia.
